

Garrison Creek Park Community Garden Association
End-of-year survey
September 28, 2008

It's now fall, and we've survived an entire growing season at Garrison Creek Park. Help us define our successes and challenges and work toward an even better year in 2009 by filling out the survey below and sharing your opinions on how we did this year and your thoughts on how we can grow in the future.

Questions or comments about the survey? Contact Kat Tancock, acting coordinator, at garrison.creek.park@gmail.com or 416.731.0063.

1. Personal information (optional)

Name:

Address:

How many members of your household use the garden?

Adults:

Children:

2. What did you grow this year? How did it go, and how was your harvest?

3. What do you consider to be our successes this year? What did you enjoy about the garden?

4. What were our failures? What didn't you enjoy?

5. Is there anything we did this year that shouldn't continue in 2009?

6. What should we continue doing next year?

7. What should we start doing next year that we didn't do this year?

8. Do you intend to keep your plot in 2009? Why or why not?

9. What, if any, events would you like to see in the garden and among the garden community in 2009? (For example, gardening workshops, parties, work bees, potlucks.)

10. How can we improve communication in the future? How do you prefer to receive updates and how would you like to communicate with other garden members?

11. How would you like to be involved in 2009? Approximately how many hours per week or month would you be willing to contribute in addition to maintenance of your plot?

12. Would you be willing to take on a committee role (whether major or minor) in 2009? What kinds of skills can you contribute or would you be willing to learn? (e.g., accounting, event planning, gardening, communications.)

13. What is your vision of the future of the park and the garden? How do you see our park in 1 year, 5 years, 10 years? Be creative and dream!
